LOTAME’S THE CONNECTED FUTURE 2020 VIRTUAL EVENT HIGHLIGHTS & VIDEO REPLAYS

On Tuesday, October 27 and Wednesday, October 28, Lotame hosted its inaugural The Connected Future virtual event. It brought together over 400 senior executives from Lotame’s global marketer, publisher, and agency client base, as well as prospective clients and industry peers.

Both days included 90 minutes of timely content centered around this year’s theme, People-based, Privacy-first, Open-to-all. The Connected Future tackled topics like identity, data enrichment and privacy, and announced the launch of our brand new cookieless ID solution, Lotame Panorama ID!

Recorded Sessions
If you missed the chance to hear from Lotame clients and executive guests on key challenges and solutions facing the digital advertising industry, or simply want to revisit your virtual experience, we’ve compiled the video recordings in this Executive Summary Report.

GENERAL SESSIONS

Opening Keynote: The Connected Future
Lotame CEO Andy Monfried shared his vision of digital advertising’s bright future. Attendees heard how we’ll level the playing field and lift all players in the ecosystem through a people-based, privacy-first, and open-to-all approach.

Andy Monfried
Founder and CEO, Lotame

“At the end of the day, everything tracks back to how to reach consumers in a privacy compliant, open way that allows for knowledge, analytics and a result. That’s what the connected future is about.”
— Andy Monfried, Founder and CEO, Lotame

Panel: Partnership for Responsible Addressable Media
Hello and welcome to the newest cross-industry initiative: the Partnership for Responsible Addressable Media. Comprised of global enterprise marketers, leading agencies and adtech innovators, partnership members discussed its goals and how it’s moving the industry toward a fairer, more responsible advertising ecosystem.

“The mission and vision of the partnership is to ensure addressable media for consumers and brands.”
— Bill Tucker, Group Executive Vice President, ANA; Executive Director Partnership for Responsible Addressable Media

Identity: Digital Advertising’s Love Language

The identity opportunity is upon us. Marketers, agencies, publishers, SSPs, DSPs, and data providers need a new language to understand consumers and collaborate successfully. Attendees were among the FIRST to hear about a brand-new solution to repair our relationships and build responsible, relevant, and resilient connections. Lotame unveiled Panorama ID, the first global cookieless identity solution for the anonymous web.

Pierre Diennet
Vice President, Product Management, Lotame

“Our focus will be to help our clients on both the buy and sell side, and responsibly address the rest of the anonymous web.”
— Pierre Diennet, Vice President, Product Management, Lotame

Lotame Panorama ID

A global people-based, privacy-compliant identity solution for the anonymous web. Built from multiple inputs (web data, customer IDs, and hashed email), Lotame Panorama ID is freely accessible to and interoperable across the cookie-challenged web, all domains, devices, and platforms globally.

Case Study: How Retail Marketers Increased First-Party Audience Addressability

Attendees heard how creative media agency Empower used Lotame’s Cartographer ID graph to increase freshness, relevancy, and addressability of its retail clients’ first-party audiences.

Evan Remmy
Senior Specialist Data Management, Empower

LOTAME CARTOGRAPHER

Lotame’s master graph was launched in 2019 to power people-based marketing and privacy compliance for global brands and publishers. Cartographer helps brands and publishers “find your people” around the world and make meaningful, respectful connections that last. Cartographer delivers complete, consistent, and compliant data connections for greater scale and precision and powers Lotame Panorama ID.

TRACK SESSIONS

Attendees had four parallel track sessions to choose from on day two. Divide and conquer with your colleagues by watching the session(s) most relevant for your role.

TRACK 1: DATA ENRICHMENT

What’s New & Next in Data

Cancel culture has set its sights on third-party data. But marketers need data enrichment now more than ever as consumers undergo profound shifts in behaviors, habits, and interests. Although our data vernacular is due for an upgrade, the utility of an expanded view of consumers is undeniable. Lotame data experts discussed Lotame Panorama’s vision and mission to preserve connectivity across the digital advertising ecosystem.

Sebastian Yoffe
Managing Director
Latin América & U.S. Hispanics, Lotame

Ruby Brenden
Head of Data Products, Lotame

Ryan Madigan
Data Marketplace Supply Director, Lotame

TRACK 2: LOTAME PRODUCTS

Features & Functionality Showcase (Client Access Only)

This product-focused session addressed how Lotame continues to offer best-in-class audience and data products that meet client business needs while respecting consumer choice, and how to future proof products for the years ahead. Client attendees received a 2020 recap of new Lotame product releases in Prebid, OTT and more, and got a sneak peek into the product roadmap.

Brian O’Connor
Vice President, Product Operations, Lotame

TRACK 3: INSIGHTS & STORYTELLING

Your Data Tells A Story But How Do You Share It With Your Customers?

Data comes to life when used to tell meaningful stories to your customers. Attendees heard real-world examples of how Lotame clients leverage data to craft relevant and engaging stories that resonate with customers. Lotame’s Head of Insights & Client Strategy shared best practices to extract the most value from your data and how to transform those insights into powerful messaging to engage current customers and find new ones.

Kristen Whitmore
Head of Insights & Client Strategy, Lotame

TRACK 4: PRIVACY

Privacy Panel: This Way Forward

New and changing privacy regulations and industry upheaval have caused widespread concern throughout the digital advertising ecosystem. But innovative leaders are leaning into change and reshaping their businesses to move forward fast. Attendees heard from Lotame, IBM, and Oracle for this thought-provoking discussion of our future as an industry with particular focus on AI and data minimization techniques to increase quality and drive scale.

Sheri Bachstein
Vice President, Global Head of Watson Advertising and Weather, IBM

Rich LaBarca
VP Product, Identity & Integrations, Oracle Data Cloud

Amy Yeung -
Moderator
General Counsel & Chief Privacy Officer, Lotame

FEEDBACK, QUESTIONS, STAY IN TOUCH!

“Great conference! Sorry we didn’t get to do it in person but in a way, it was actually more intimate. I probably would have never gotten the chance to talk to y’all in a traditional conference setting.”

—Sok Verdery, Directory of Digital Strategy, Comporium
